New Extendicare Nursing Home has successful Open House

Extendicare Skilled Nursing Centre last Wednesday held its official opening ceremony and an Open House for the public. About 600 people dropped into the nursing home at Park Street and Eastern Avenue during the course of the day to tour the bright, spacious facility.

A delicious variety of thousands of tasty hors d'oeuvres were prepared for the occasion by several community volunteers, including Mrs. Kel Andison, Mrs. Helen Leighton, Mrs. Dorothy Davidson, Doreen Robertson, and Mrs. Peggy Neville. These ladies, with additional help from Mrs. Joan Fennell, also volunteer their services to the home on a regular basis in helping provide favours and companionship for the residents.

In a welcome speech at the open house, Joan Fennell, former Chairman of the Haliburton Social Planning Council, said that the new nursing home is the "realization of a dream two years in the making. We have seen quite a change from a vacant lot to the bright surroundings and cheerful staff here today. The community is glad that Extendicare is in Haliburton to provide a needed service."

Among the many guests at the Haliburton Open House were John Eakins, M.P.P., Glen Hodgson, former M.P.P., several Council Members and all the Township Reeves.

The Extendicare staff, who were busy in the kitchen plus showing visitors around the home, consists of Sheila Elston, Administrator and Director of Nursing; Miriam Lewis, Activities Director; Darleen Darby, Food Supervisor, with kitchen assistance from Lillian Bonfield, Judy Robertson, and Bernice Stewart; Jane Rosenberg, RN, Day Nurse; Norma Williamson, RN, Evening Nurse; Dorothy Rasmussen, RN, Night Nurse; Donna Dillon, Reception; Laverne Barry, Maintenance; Judy Bedford, Marilyn Berry, Betty Milburn, Pat Burk, Olive Bailey, Pat Cummings, Gail Medcalf, Joan Hutchings, Evelyn Saxby, and Diana Summerville.

Although Wednesday was the official opening, the 60-bed nursing centre began accepting residents on March 1, and there are 49 so far. Each one of them has been kept active and interested with a variety of activities and field trips conducted by the nursing home. For example, the residents have taken bus trips around the area and have dropped in to visit pupils at school who have performed a play for them. In addition, classes have come to the home on Wednesdays to demonstrate to the residents some of the things they are involved with such as tumbling and card making.

Local church groups and senior citizen clubs have also proved most valuable in such things as showing travel slides and planning entertainment for the residents. To all of the organizations and individuals who are so generously volunteering their time, the residents and staff of Extendicare offer heartfelt thanks.

Of course, many of the residents are active themselves in planning their own activities. One example is Mr. Charles Plewman, who regales the nursing home each Monday at noon with the "razzle dazzle scoop shovel", his humorous comments on current home activities and staff and residents there. Mr. Plewman also won a slogan award held by the Ontario Nursing Homes Association recently in which people from all over the province submitted theme slogans to be used during Nursing Home Weekend in September of this year; his winning slogan was "Nursing Homes - Home Away from Home."

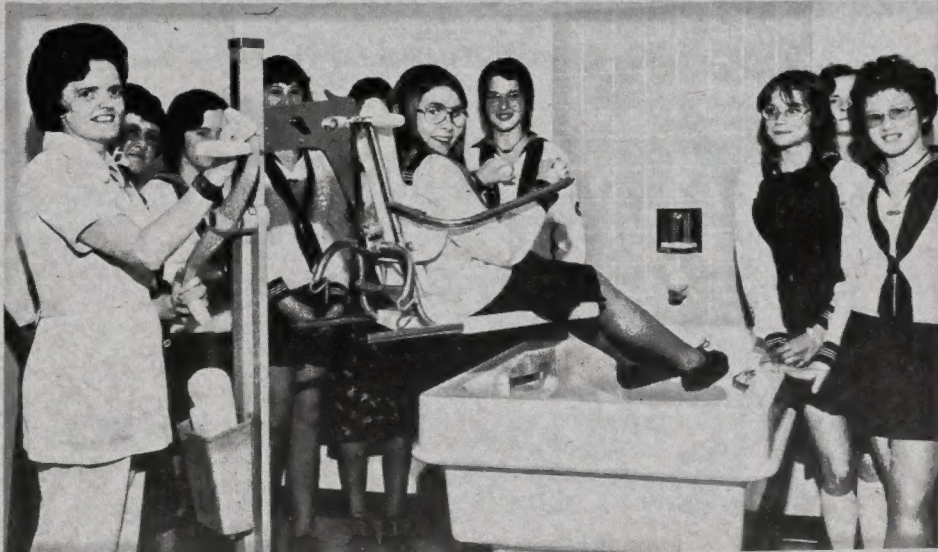

Mr. Plewman who is as adept at music as he is at writing, plays the harmonica, and together with Jake Gill of the nursing home, they sing and play music for the entertainment of the other residents.

One of the most active residents at Extendicare is Mr. Charles Plewman who is the editor of the nursing home newspaper "Razzle Dazzle Scoop Shovel". His humorous comments on current home activities proves to be very popular. Mr. Plewman also won a slogan award held by the Ontario Nursing Homes Association.

Visitors from all over the county were on hand for the official opening and open house at Extendicare, Haliburton held last Wednesday. Here are some of the local citizens shown mingling with some of the residents during the afternoon. Although Wednesday was the official opening the 60 bed nursing centre began accepting residents on March 1, and there are 49 so far.

Mrs. Williamson, evening charge nurse is shown explaining the operation of the ambu-lift to some of the members of the Haliburton C.G.I.T. at the official opening of Extendicare, Haliburton held last Wednesday. About 600 people dropped into the nursing home during the course of the day to tour the bright spacious facility.

Arthritis crusader to receive $50,000 Royal Bank award

Vancouver, April 13, — A woman who has made better health care for arthritic sufferers a personal lifetime crusade, today was named 1976 recipient of the $50,000 Royal Bank Award.

Mary Pack of Vancouver is the first woman to receive the prestigious award, which is presented annually to an outstanding Canadian who has made an exceptional contribution to human welfare and the common good.

Miss Pack is recognized as the moving force behind the founding of The Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society (CARS), which was established in 1947 and today is represented in every province. She is the founder and, from 1948 through 1969, was the executive director of the British Columbia division of CARS, the first provincial CARS organization and an international leader in its field.

The designation of Miss Pack as the 1976 recipient of the Royal Bank Award was announced at a news conference in Vancouver by the Hon. J. V. Clyne, chairman of the award selection committee.

In introducing Miss Pack, Mr. Clyne noted that she has spent more than 30 years crusading for greater research and more facilities for the treatment of arthritis.

"The success of her efforts has benefited hundreds of thousands of arthritis sufferers and made Canada a world leader in research and treatment of the disease. As a result of her work, sufferers who 30 years ago could have been confined to bed from childhood are today receiving treatment that allows them to lead normal everyday lives," he said.

Mr. Clyne remarked that Miss Pack's unrelenting dedication to a cause has earned her numerous accolades at home and abroad. She is a member of The Order of Canada and also a recipient of the Queen Elizabeth Medal, a coronation commemorative award for outstanding contribution to the welfare of people of the British Commonwealth.

Miss Pack is the 11th reipient of the Royal Bank Award. She will be presented the specially struck gold medal symbolizing the Award and a $50,000 cheque by Royal Bank chairman and president W. Earle McLaughlin at a dinner in Vancouver on July 12, 1976.

Introduced in 1967 as a contribution to Canada's centennial program, the Royal Bank Award has been bestowed on individuals prominent in a variety of fields.

Recipients of the Royal Bank Award are chosen by a seven member selection committee made up of academic and business leaders from across Canada. The committee operates independently of The Royal Bank of Canada in assessing nominations.

A native of England, Miss Pack emigrated to Canada at the age of 18. She became concerned about the effects of arthritis and the lack of facilities for treatment of the disease while teaching physically handicapped children in Vancouver. Several of her pupils were afflicted by the disease and at the same time her mother was developing the same illness.

As a result of some preliminary research, Miss Pack found that no concerted and detailed efforts were being made to discover the cause or cure for arthritis, even though thousands of Canadians were afflicted.

Consequently, Miss Pack took matters into her own hands. By writing letters to every newspaper across the country, she initiated a campaign which, in 1947, resulted in the formation of CARS.

Today the Arthritis Society, headquartered in Toronto, has branches in more than 500 communities throughout Canada. It provides help and assistance for the 95,000 Canadians confined to beds or wheelchairs, and the 482,000 further Canadians partially disabled as a result of the disease. Miss Pack is a life member of the Society. Although retired since 1969, she is still a full-time volunteer co-ordinator at the Vancouver Arthritis Centre.

Women's Bureau publish four new fact sheets

How many preschoolers in Ontario have working mothers? What percentage of women workers are unionized? How many female engineering students are now enrolled in Ontario universities?

How do the average earnings of men and women in sales jobs compare?

These and other questions are answered in four new fact sheets published by the Ontario Women's Bureau and available free of charge to the public.

"Women are now a permanent and significant part of the labour force and there is a need to provide accurate information about their contribution to the economy," says Marnie Clarke, the Bureau's director. "We receive a steady stream of requests for such information."

The fact sheets were prepared by Lesley Lewis, the research co-ordinator of the Women's Bureau, using data from Statistics Canada and the Research Branch of the Ministry of Labour.

Under the series title Women in the Labour Force, the fact sheet "Basic Facts" summarizes the available data on the status of Ontario's 1.3 million working women.

The "Labour Unions" fact sheet contains information on how many women are unionized and in what sectors of the economy. It shows that the number of Ontario women in unions has increased by nearly one hundred per cent in the decade between 1963 and 1973 while union membership for men has increased by less than a third during the same period. Despite this increase only one in five union members is now a woman.

The fact sheet entitled "Childcare" states that there are more than half a million women in the labour force in Ontario with children under 16 years of age and goes on to give information on the various ways parents cope with the care of young children.

Under the title of "Education", Ms. Lewis has assembled information showing that the educational level of the working woman is somewhat higher than that of the average working man. Figures on the current participation of Ontario women in post-secondary institutions are also given.

The fact sheets are not intended to set forth issues. "Their aim," Ms. Lewis says, "is to inform the public, to help people who need data for research papers or briefs or just to help you win a dinner-table argument."

Hall's Lake news

The Spring Dance at Club 15 on Saturday evening was a decided success. Elmer Russell and his Group provided good music, with "Pop" Hart at the piano and Bill Bartshore calling for the squares. Florence Lindsay and her ladies did a great job with refreshments. All members co-operated to get the Club House freshly painted and cleaned up and the decorations were particularly nice. Guests arrived from Toronto, Kingston and several other distant places and all agreed it was a good evening of fun.

Mrs. Bursey and Mrs. Rawlins journeyed recently to Owen Sound to attend a seminar on Homes for the Aged.

The Stanhope Firemen held a spaghetti supper at Lil Chick Inn on Sunday evening with their ladies, and are working hard to prepare for their big Auction Sale next Saturday at the Firehall on the North Shore Road.

It was good to see the Forstinger brothers and their all young sons up on a fishing week-end, staying at Cherokee Lodge. They are from St. Catharines and spend their Summers up here.

Mrs. Florence Poirier is back from her Winter in Toronto and will soon be taking up residence again, but at present living with her sister, Mrs. Louise Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooke of Simcoe are using their cottage again quite frequently. He is a retired Bank Manager and they hope some day to live up here.

A generous donation to the Bill Mole Memorial Fund has been received from the Boshkung Association and we send them a special thank you. Many of the out-of-town folks receive this local paper and will be interested to know this has been received and appreciated.

Mr. "Corky" MacGregor and his friend Mr. Eric White of Guelph are at the MacGregor cottage on the Island for a day or two.

The ladies of St. Stephen's Church Guild sponsored a lovely Miscellaneous Shower for bride-elect Rosemary Stinson last Tuesday evening with many local women present. It was held at the lovely home of Althea Gartshore and the bridal bells and golden chair and freshly cut flowers made a perfect setting for the occasion. A white tissue-paper gown and cascade bouquet of the colourful ribbons added to the enjoyment of the evening and Miss Marjorie Johnson conducted some interesting contests. The dainty refreshments were, as always, something the ladies do so well and serve with great generosity.

Mrs. Russel Woods of Belwood was Guest of Honour along with the Bride-Elect at the Shower last Tuesday evening at Mrs. Gartshore's Home.

Driving home from Aurora Sunday evening we drove through a heavy downpour of rain, dense fog, and hundreds of big frogs jumping around on the highway.

Industrial designers to assist small firms

A program designed to assist small manufacturing companies develop new products through the services of industrial design consultants is being undertaken by the Ontario Ministry of Industry and Tourism.

Aimed at upgrading the design and quality of existing products, the program also seeks to improve the competitive position of these products in the market. Further, it strives to establish a better understanding of design management principles among small businesses.

Co-sponsored by the federal government Office of Design, Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce, it is the intent of the program to promote commercial benefits within Ontario.

Projects, to be considered, must have sound market potential and be innovative. They may also be an extension of a company's product development program.

Firms involved in the program retain title to patents, designs, technical data, market information or models resulting from the project.

For further details, contact local Ontario Ministry of Industry and Tourism field offices.

Funny Farm fun enjoyed

We went to the Brae Mar Ranch to see the animals. Mother Goose (Mrs. Jean Wood) met us. We fed popcorn to all the animals. Donkey was funny - he made a funny noise!

Rascal Raccoon liked our popcorn too. We ate our lunch down by the water and Mrs. Duck visited us! We had so much fun that day.

In Memoriam

CUMBS - In loving memory of a dear husband, father and son-in-law, Loral Coumbs, who passed away May 21, 1972.

There is a family who misses you,
And finds time long since you went
We think of you daily and hourly,
But try to be brave and content.
Tears that we shed are in silence,
And we breath a sigh of regret,
For you were ours, and we remember,
Though all the world forget.

Lovingly remembered by wife Kay, daughter Judy and mother-in-law Mae.

CUMBS - In loving memory of a dear son, brother, and grandson, Darryl John Coumbs, who passed away May 28th, 1967.

Though his smile is gone forever,
And his hand we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much.
His memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part;
God has him in His keeping,
We have him in our heart.

Lovingly remembered by Mom, sister Judy and Grandma.

COWAN - In loving memory of our dear daughter Valerie Irene who was taken from us five years ago, May 23rd, 1971.

Gone from this world so swiftly
Just like a beautiful flower in bloom,
So young, so fair, so loving
Yet called away so soon.
We'll meet here some glad morning
Resting by the waters fair,
She is waiting for our coming
In the Upper Garden there.
His message:
Come to my Heavenly Garden
And see in perfect bloom
The flower you loved so dearly
And thought I plucked too soon.
Then you will know the reason
Though you know it not today
Why in her young and tender years
I took your little angel away.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered Mom and Dad.

HELLEMS - In memory of Roy Hellems who passed away May 24th, 1960.

As time unfolds another year
Memories keep you ever near
Silent thoughts of times together
Hold memories that will last forever.

Always lovingly remembered by wife Mabel, son Bill, daughters Grace and Isabel and families.

In Memoriam

COWAN - In loving memory of our sister Valerie Irene who passed away May 23rd, 1971.

There's always a face before us
A voice we look to hear
Her smile we'll always remember
Of a sister we loved so dear
A heartful of beautiful memories
Sorrow by many a tear
Wishing God had spared you
For many more happy years.

Sadly missed by sister Kendra, brothers David and Jim, sisters-in-law Sandy and Allyson.

HOWE - In loving memory of our dear Parents, Margaret and Byron (Barney) Howe, who passed into rest, 1952 and 1966.

God gave us wonderful Parents,
Their memory will never grow old,
He fashioned their smile out of sunshine,
And moulded their hearts of pure gold;
He needed new stars in heaven,
Beautiful lights to shine,
And out of this old world of sorrow
He took those dear parents of mine.

Ever remembered by Frank and Ida.

PALMER - In loving memory of our dear sister, Mildred, who passed away May 18th, 1970.

In the city of light on the hills far away
Where the sun never sets nor the flowers decay.
She is with her Redeemer
Free from sorrow and pain
In God's own time we shall meet her again.

Sadly missed by sisters Ruth, Rose and brother Wallace.

WILSON - In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, George Wilson, who passed away May 17, 1972.

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear.
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here,
Who, though absent, is just as dear.

Lovingly remembered by wife Mae, daughter Kay and granddaughter Judy.

Environment Ontario seeks operator for resource recovery plant

The Ontario Ministry of the Environment today launched a talent hunt for a qualified company to manage and operate the most advanced waste processing plant in the world, now under construction in Downsview.

The plant is a unique combination of a working resource recovery facility, capable of serving more than 300,000 people, and a sophisticated Ministry research and development centre. This presents an unusual challenge to the operator, and an opportunity to demonstrate what can be achieved by the joint efforts of industry and Government.

As a preliminary to tendering, the Ministry has invited interested companies to submit qualifications and detailed information on their backgrounds, capabilities & financial status. Pre-qualified groups will be invited to tender on the plant management contract, which includes operation and maintenance of the plant, preparation and market delivery of processed materials, and the transportation of transferred waste and process residue to disposal facilities.

The experimental plant, when it opens later this year, can accept up to 800 tons per day of Metropolitan Toronto garbage.

As much as 600 tons per day of waste can be transferred at the plant or up to 600 daily tons can be processed on a two-shift basis for recovery of material and energy resources.

The experimental plant will accept household refuse and commercial and industrial solid waste, including oversized, bulky wastes such as refrigerators, and other appliances, and produce baled paper and cardboard, ferrous metal, non-ferrous metal, glass, paper fiber, organic fiber, compost and fuel.

The working quantities of recovered waste products will be used to generate and develop markets for resource recovery. Some of the recovered material will be fed to provincial and industrial experimental installations to develop new uses for reclaimed waste. All plant processes will be heavily instrumented and monitored to establish cost and operating efficiency data on all these processes.

The plant's operation and research activities will receive the general supervision of a committee representing the Ontario Ministry of the Environment and Metropolitan Toronto.

Trent-Severn Waterway news

Today, (May 14, 1976) marks the beginning of the 1976 navigation season along the Trent-Severn Waterway from Trenton to Port Severn. At this time we are also resuming our weekly press column to keep people on the Reservoir lakes informed about levels and flows.

Water levels along the Canal route and on the Reservoirs have stabilized after the high flow conditions of the spring freshet. The Reservoirs as a whole contain approximately 91 percent of their maximum storage volume. The small difference between this percentage and maximum (or 100%) is an allowance being reserved to hold heavy spring rains without excessive flows or flooding resulting. The allowance will be reduced by June 15 when we would permit the levels to rise to 98 percent. This reduction is possible because of a reduced risk of heavy rains after June 15.

Dry weather of course would result in our drawing water from these lakes probably before June 15 and in that case we would not reach 98 percent this year.

During the past spring Kawartha Lakes levels equalled or exceeded most previous record levels and the peak flow measured at Lakefield was the highest since 1960.
